The Centralian

1950 Edition

Dedication

THE Centralian this year we proudly dedicate to Coach Swearingen, Coach Shevalier and Coach Rushin, who are making the name of Southwestern synonymous with good sportsmanship. We so dedicate it because of the tremendous amount of work these three have done in the past to bring the schools closer together. To have a winning team has not been the peak of importance to these men; they have gained much more pleasure in seeing their boys work together as a team—win or lose.

Coach Cloise Swearingen, as director of athletics and football coach for two years, has headed the march for a more unified sports setup. He conquered the overwhelming task of building a smooth functioning athletic system for a larger school out of two very different athletic setups. He also coached baseball and freshman basketball for a time.

Coach Richard Shevalier takes care of the basketball program in the school. He also coaches volleyball, freshman baseball, and last year took over the duties of line coach in football. He has aided in the activities of the American Legion Junior Ball Club.

Coach Joe Rushin, who just this year became the head football coach, has also been in the school setup since its creation. He coaches track and junior varsity basketball. Before becoming head football coach he coached the backfield and still retains this duty.

Coaches Rushin and Shevalier have instituted fine intramural systems in the two schools which allow many more boys to participate in sports. This program will help to build better teams for the future. These three all have done a splendid job and all of us appreciate their cooperation and fine spirit. As in the days of the ancient Greeks, athletics play an important part in our lives.

MAIN FOREWORD

A man's discourse is like a rich Persian carpet, the beautiful figures and patterns can be shown only by spreading and extending it out; when it is contracted and folded up, they are obscured and lost.

The Board of Education

"What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?"

THE Board of Education consists of nine members with Dr. E. W. Pilkey as its president and Kenneth Sonne as its vice president. Margaret Farnsworth is clerk. The other seven members and the districts they represent are Mary Stranigan and William Downs, Celoron and West Ellicott Zone; Walter Davis, Busti district eight, ten, and twelve; Harold Fosburg, who this year replaces Herbert Hern, Lakewood Zone; and Lloyd Babcock, Busti districts three and six. This organization meets at eight o'clock on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. On the second Wednesday, the Board meets at Lakewood; the fourth Wednesday, at Celoron. There are many committees, two of which are the Building and Grounds Committee, Mr. Warlow, chairman; and the Budget and Finance Committee, Mr. Sonne, chairman. The Board of Education seeks to make Southwestern Central School a better and more united system.

Seated—Mr. Davis, Mr. Siggins, Mrs. Stranigan, Dr. Pilkey, Mrs. Farnsworth.
Standing—Mr. Fosburg, Mr. Sonne, Mr. Warlow. Mr. Babcock and Mr. Downs were absent when the picture was taken.

Celoron Senior Class Will

WE, BEING the only surviving members of this Senior Class of 1950, being in various degrees of mental confusion and disorder, do hereby outline this, our last will and testament, in hopes that in due time it may benefit someone, somewhere.

1. To Mary Beaty, who is somewhat boisterous, Donna Myers leaves her quiet, gentle manner.
2. RoxAnn Williams, feeling especially liberal, leaves her ability to "stick to one man" to Joan Easton, who can't quite make up her mind, and also her changeable disposition to the ever unchangeable Charlene Johnson.
3. To Rodger Swanson, who is always studying so hard, Byron Crocker leaves his easy going personality and ability to "just get by."
4. Dick Zahn leaves his Casanova ability to attract all females to Richard Young, who seems to be quite a shy and quiet lad.
5. Gale Stranigan leaves his roving eyes and flirting ability to Don Peterson, who is well on his way already.
6. Paul Logan bequeaths his athletic ability to Keith Mong, who already has a good start.
7. Florence Olson bestows upon Clarabelle Vandenberg, who is one of those quiet Juniors, her talkative manner. Also Florence, feeling quite generous, leaves her flirtatious attitude to Marvel Scott and Barbara LaQuay who do not seem to bother with the boys.
8. Judy Agnew, who never seems to get upset, leaves this ability to Flora Stranigan, who has a "fiery temper."
9. Rollin Sandberg is also very fortunate in receiving Earl McMaster's friendly manner and ability to get along with people.
10. Dolores Newark, who is always clowning, leaves this ability to Nancy Beaty to keep her class laughing.
11. Rollin Godding leaves his rare artistic talents to Don Lepley. Use them wisely, Don.
12. Jean Hotelling is the worthwhile recipient of Alice Barland's ability to get through school and go steady, all at the same time.
13. Joan Webb bequeaths her jolly and humorous attitude to the somewhat doleful Lola Strom.
14. To Marilyn Widlund, who is apparently the home-loving type, Sonya Seager leaves her ability to go out every night and still be able to come to school with that lively spirit.
15. Jack Parry leaves his rest days to Robert Schneider, a very wide awake Junior, so he can keep going throughout the busy Senior year.
16. Jerry Starkweather, who is "supposedly" our bashful boy of the Senior Class, bestows this attribute on "not so bashful" Tom McCann.
17. Jack Miller bequeaths his ability to get things done to Bill Wassman and Dick Patton, who seem to be lacking in this trait.

Senior Play

ON NOVEMBER 9 and 10, the Senior Class presented its annual play in the Celoron School auditorium. This play, "Bottoms Up" by Harold J. Gregory, is a college comedy in three acts.

The story is concerned mainly with life on a college campus. It is a "riot" of laughs all through. The fact that students were constantly getting into trouble and all of them tried to cover up for each other only made matters worse.

The play, directed by Mrs. Watson, was a great success with a capacity audience both nights.

The cast was as follows: George Harper—Earl McMaster, Billy Drake—Paul Logan, "Bulge" Doolittle—Dick Zahn, Miss Cartwright—Alice Barland, Linda Howard—Florence Olson, Dotty Wilson—Dolores Newark, Connie Bishop—Virginia Robinson, Betty Warren—RoxAnn Williams, Dixie Lea—Janet Whitford, Dean Page—Joan Miller, Algernon Higgens—Jerry Starkweather, Julia Edwards—Judy Agnew, Kate Adams—Joan Webb, Alice Lane—Georgia Siggins, and Hector—Gale Stranigan.

First row—V. Robinson, R. Williams, D. Newark, G. Siggins, J. Webb, J. Agnew.
Second row—P. Logan, F. Olson, G. Starkweather, D. Zahn, E. McMaster, G. Stranigan, A. Barland, J. Whitford, J. Miller.

Class Will of Lakewood School

FRIENDS of Southwestern Central School, you are here assembled to listen to the last will of the class of 1950.

We, the Senior class of Lakewood school, being in the full possession of all our mental faculties and having no fear of anyone before our eyes, not even the Superintendent, the professors and the other teachers, we do hereby will our various earthly possessions to the persons hereinafter mentioned, to be by them held in undisturbed possession through the length of their mortal spans.

Samuel Peterson leaves his loneliness to Lynn Reynolds who is always on the ball.

Grace Shearman wills her reserve manner to Edna Nelson who is always up and at 'em.

Sam Todaro leaves his brilliant mind to Don Martindale with the hope that he will settle down.

Merrill Robbins leaves his good times spent at the dance halls to Kenneth Nelson whose face is always seen at the same place.

Horace Braley wills his A in Chemistry to Richard Page, who thinks he'll need it next year even though he's taken it once.

Dorothy Nelson wills her never-ending energy to Barbara Wallace who is of an opposite nature.

John Hendrickson leaves his dancing ability to Billy Brown, who loves to dance so well. Just ask him; he'll tell you.

Ronald Carlson leaves his way with women to Jimmy Moore, who is very shy and bashful.

Roselia Towne wills her shortness to Carol Lane, who is of great height.

Horace Shearman leaves his good times in English class to Chuck Vogt, who is so bored with English.

Dick Cady leaves his clumsiness to any Junior boy or girl who thinks he can top him.

Laura Scott wills her long list of dates to Marilyn Wescott.

Bert Peterson leaves his athletic ability to Tom Naughton, who doesn't need much help, even though he is just a Junior.

Donald Offhaus wills part of his 6′ 3″ frame to Billy Osmer, who never seems to grow up. He's even tried Wheaties, but still no luck.

Sonya Simpson wills her changing ways to Donna Northrop.

Charles Mullard is only too glad to give his car, if you can call it one, to Jack Carlson, who is forced to run down to Celoron to see his girl—a wise choice, Charles!

Ronald Donner leaves his place as class president to any Junior boy who thinks he can stick up for Senior rights.

Jane Wigley wills her ability to stay with one boy to Joyce Peterson, who has trouble staying with many.

Raymond Olson gives his paper route, to which he is so faithful, to any Junior boy who thinks he can do as capable a job as he.

ON NOVEMBER 18th the curtain rose on one of the best Senior Plays to be presented at Lakewood School. The story centered around the life of a homeless boy from the Kentucky mountains. Orphaned early in life, this boy had no knowledge of his parentage.

In an unusual way, Chad met Major Buford of the Kentucky aristocracy, who took him to his palatial home and insisted that Chad be raised as one of their own.

One humiliating situation after another finally drove the boy back to Kingdom Come, where "folks don't keer who I be."

Restored to his proper place in the sun, after a year at the University, Chad returns to the "Blue Grass" and wins the hand of lovely Margaret Dean and the respect and admiration of all.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" add to the impressive list of hits directed by Mrs. Lois Camp. —S. M. H.

CLASSES

Junior Class

For such men as these discharge their duties with honor
To the state and to their house.

The Juniors elected the following officers of their class:

President	Tom Naughton
Vice President	Patricia Carlson
Secretary	Jack Carlson
Treasurer	Doris Lawson
Sports Managers	Bill Brown, Sandra Wilson
Centralian Staff	Allene Bergman, Dick Forrester
Student Council	Nancy Naylor, Lynn Reynolds
Reporter	Neil Magnuson

As the major event of our year, the Juniors produced the comedy play, "The Campbells Are Coming," on March 10, under the direction of Mr. Cherry, the Junior adviser. It was a grand event and a great hit. We all had a good time but are glad that the occasion is over. Following the Junior play a party was held at George Braley's to celebrate our great success.

We are looking forward to the Junior Prom which will be held at Celoron. This delightful affair is given by the Juniors in honor of the Seniors.

Sophomore Class

Nor fear thy efforts shall his worth exceed;
Within the lines of truth secure to throw,
Thy dart shall still surpass each vain attempting foe.

IN SEPTEMBER the Sophomore Class began the year by electing the following officers:

President	Ann Burstrom
Vice President	Bill Moran
Secretary	Eileen O'Brien
Treasurer	Paul Truver
Student Council	James Olsen, Mary Anne Hendler
Athletic Council	John Wigley, Maxine Hetrick
Centralian Staff	Anthony Barone, Diane Christy

Junior Class

"As we advance in life, we learn the limits of our abilities."

WHEN the Junior Class convened in September, we found ourselves under the capable leadership of Mr. Walter A. Miller. We elected the following officers:

President ..... Rollin Sandberg
Vice President ..... William Wassman
Secretary ..... Richard Patton
Treasurer ..... Carol Parker
Reporter ..... Keith Mong
Student Council—Nancy Beaty, DeVere McCann

In the fall we sponsored the traditional Junior Penny Supper, which proved very successful and helped to expand our treasury; later we sold plastic book covers.

In February we were guests of the Seniors at a Valentine Ball given at Lakewood, which was enjoyed by all members of our class who attended. We are planning a Prom in June at which we shall be hosts to the Seniors.

Sophomore Class

"What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?"

THE Sophomore Class comprises nearly fifty students. The officers who have led us during the year are as follows:

President	Roger Whitford
Vice President	Rae Williams
Secretary	John Paquin
Treasurer	Lennart Erickzon
Class Reporter	Dianne Peters
Student Council	Dianne Peters, Lennart Erikzon

During the basketball season we sold basketball feathers at the games. These were made up in our school colors, red and blue, with "Southwestern" written on them. They added a touch of gaiety and color to our cheering section.

Mrs. Betty Lake and Mr. Robert Morris are our advisers who have guided us well through our Sophomore year. —J. L. P.

Freshman Class

Not a tear do they shed, not a sigh do they heave,
They are happy, forever and ever!

SHORTLY after school opened the Freshmen held their first class meeting and elected the following officers:

President	Clarence Olson
Vice President	Richard Wigley
Secretary	Paul Evinczik
Treasurer	Russell Curtis
Student Council	Raymond Warner and Barbara Wight
Centralian Staff	Alvin Bennink and Kathleen Goss
Reporter	Pauline Evinczik
Boys' Sports	Dennis Moran
Girls' Sports	Shirley Donner

On November 5th they held a square and round dance, with the Westernaires supplying the music. It was the first one of the season and a great success.

In sports, the Freshman football team won second place, and the basketball team was tied for first place.

The six girls who led the Freshmen cheering section were: Pauline Evinczik, Patty Fagan, Pearl Rapp, Evelyn Peterson, Kathryn Reynolds and Shirley Donner.

We participated in Junior High parties given by the P. T. A. Everyone had a good time, and we are looking forward to more of the same fun.

—K. G.

Eighth Grade

'Tis education forms the common mind.
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.

IN SEPTEMBER, 1949, the eighth grade class was organized with the assistance of Mrs. Burk and Mr. Washburn. We elected the class officers as follows:

President	Marcia Anderson
Vice President	John Boardman
Secretary	Ann Lawson
Treasurer	Thomas Lundquist
Student Council	Marilyn Peterson, David Truax
Cardinal Staff	Joyce Crandall, Sheldon Burstrom

Our Vice President, John Boardman, has filled the vacancy of our treasurer, Thomas Lundquist.

The Junior High parties have been very entertaining and we take this time to thank the parents for organizing them.

On March 13, 1950, the eighth grade sponsored a marionette show which was well attended.

—J. C.

First row—Miss Tack, J. Strom, D. Plank, R. Gustafson, B. Gokey, J. Johnson, J. LaQuay, A. Parker, R. McTavish, J. Lawson, J. Anderson, L. Hall, J. McIntyre, E. Siggins, A. Lilja, Mrs. Watson.

Freshman Class

WE, THE two ninth grades of Celoron Branch, met in September and in anticipation of a full year, elected for their efficiency and prudence, the following officers:

President ..... Alfred Parker
Vice President ..... Joyce LaQuay
Secretary ..... Joan Johnson
Treasurer ..... Roger McTavish
Student Council Representative ..... Jack Bailey

These officers guided us with the help of our advisers, Mrs. Watson and Miss Tack.

During the meetings, in Room 211, throughout the year we have staged a variety of programs. The first, our favorite, included hilarious skits imitating our teachers. We enjoyed these skits but as yet we dare not publish the comments of said teachers.

At another meeting Mrs. Watson, who has traveled quite a bit, gave a talk concerning the island of Aruba. We were especially delighted with the displays of articles and pictures from that island.

We gave various other programs too numerous to mention, and we look back on our Freshman year with fond memories.

Eighth Grade

AT AN organization meeting in the fall, the Eighth Grade of Mrs. Dennison's home room chose as officers:

President	Sally Anderson
Vice President	Bobby Plank
Secretary	Betty Bernhard
Treasurer	John Johnson

The students of Miss Jones' room chose as officers:

President	Franklin Workens
Vice President	Carol Hoover
Secretary	Bruce Guenther
Treasurer	Jean Almgren

Through the leadership of these boys and girls we have had a pleasant year. Our meetings were held every other Tuesday.

Anton Neubauer was in charge of the programs in Mrs. Dennison's room; Donna Puff, in Miss Jones's room.

The eighth graders are now getting used to the high school ways and are very pleased with them. We hope that this year's seventh grade will enjoy eighth grade as much as we did. —P. H.

Seventh Grade

Go forth to learn what race of men are these
Whether ill-mannered, savage, and unjust,
Or kind to guests and reverent gods!

IN SEPTEMBER the seventh grade organized a group of 64 children. We elected the following officers:

President	Walter Carlson
Vice President	Barbara Hitchcock
Secretary	Leland Sperry
Treasurer	Peter Peterson
Student Council	Duane Peterson and Diana Rood
Sports Managers	Donna Van Every and Arthur Whiteman
Reporter	Donna Myregaard
Centralian	Marcia Milton and Robert Bergstrom

We sold book-covers and paid dues to help finance the class. Since the beginning of the year we have had three new girls—Marilyn Gorman, Shirley Jones and Carol Ellison; three new boys—Charles Howe, Charles Johnson and Francis Pangborn. —M. M.

Seventh Grade

"For we are all of us drawn to the pursuit of knowledge; in which to excel we consider excellent whereas to err, to be ignorant, to be deceived, is both evil and a disgrace."

In the early fall both seventh grades elected the following officers:

Presidents	James Miller and Sandra Gardiner
Vice Presidents	Marlene Paquin and John Jackson
Secretaries	John Ford and Richard Devereaux
Treasurers	Loy Ann Seager and Richard Schneider
Student Council	Dale Newark
Centralian Staff	Cynthia McKay

Both divisions of our grade had a very busy and interesting year. Home room meetings were held every other week. We had various kinds of entertainment. Each room had a Christmas party.

At the annual spelling contest sponsored by the Buffalo Evening News, for grades five through eight, Janet Kane of our class won the school award. We are very proud of this honor. —C. M.

Celoron Chorus

THE Celoron Branch Chorus of the Southwestern Central School opened its season with the election of Donna Barkman, president; Janet Whitford, vice president; and Joan Easton and Sue Bailey, librarians.

Betty Newark, Rose Mary Ahl, Jean Hotelling, and Nancy Beaty participated in the Sectional All State Chorus held at Chautauqua. The chorus was under the baton of Dr. Boyd, a graduate of Buffalo State Teachers College.

The first accomplishment of the year was a P.T.A. Christmas program, directed by Miss Sackett, "Why the Chimes Rang." Several members of the chorus went caroling after the program.

Our instructor, Miss Sackett, has been aided at different times by student teachers from Fredonia. Mr. Richard Caverly was here the first semester and Mr. James Straney the second semester.

We expect to combine with the Lakewood Branch for the Fredonia Festival, under the name, "Southwestern Central Chorus." —R. L. S.

Lakewood Chorus

OUR chorus had a very successful year under the competent direction of Miss Lillian Malmberg. At the beginning of the year, the following officers were elected:

President	Jane Wigley
Vice President	Richard Forrester
Secretary-Treasurer	Ann Burstrom
Librarians	Patricia Carlson, William Saber
Robe Custodians	Laura Scott, Jack Carlson
Pianist	Jane Wigley (1st semester)
Pianist	Ann Burstrom (2nd semester)

This year the Chorus sang Fred Waring's "Song of Christmas" for the entertainment of clubs and organizations.

The main event was the presentation of the operetta, "Chonita" which was held very successfully on March 31. The members received letters at the end of the year.

Senior Band

LAKEWOOD Branch of the SWCS Band, under the direction of Mr. Edward Turner elected the following officers:

President	Ronald Merwin
Vice President	Randall Nord
Secretary	Pauline Evinczik
Treasurer	William Clawson

The officers of Celoron Branch are:

President	Robert Schneider
Vice President	Keith Mong
Secretary-Treasurer	Virginia Robinson

The band played at all the home football games and at assemblies. In November, five members of the band took part in the All-State Band at Chautauqua. Trumpet—Randall Nord, William Clawson; Drums—Lorraine Sparling; Flute—Priscilla Bailey.

The combined SWCS Band held concerts February 8th at Celoron and April 26 at Lakewood.

In May the Band went to the Fredonia Music Festival.

We wish to express our thanks to Mr. Turner for the fine leadership during the past year.

National Honor Society

"When honor comes to you be ready to take it;
But reach not to seize it before it is near."

THE purpose of the National Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and develop character in the students of American schools.

New members elected to the Alpha Chi Omega Chapter were: Paul Logan, Joan Miller, Virginia Robinson, Gale Stranigan, Frances Freay, Joan Paquin, Dianne Peters.

Members of Alpha Chapter were: Anne Kudzy, Jane Wigley, Marilyn Howell, Donna Nelson, Sam Todaro, Tom Naughton, Nancy Naylor, Jack Wigley and Anthony Barone.

No honor bestowed by a school excels that of membership in the National Honor Society, as it represents the fundamental objective for which high schools were instituted—the completion of a total product measured by the four dimensions of life: Character, Scholarship, Leadership and Service.

Student Council

"Every man should measure himself by his own standard."

BECAUSE of the size and organization of the school it has seemed advisable to maintain a branch of the student council in both Celoron and Lakewood.

The following officers have served through the year:

President	Florence Olson
Vice President	Janet Whitford
Secretary	Nancy Beaty
Treasurer	DeVere McCann

At Lakewood the Student Council under the guidance of Mr. James Cherry and Mr. Robert Habich held regular meetings to discuss school government.

Officers were elected as follows:

President	Laura Scott
Vice President	Lynn Reynolds
Secretary	Mary Ann Hendler
Treasurer	Jerome Mattison
Concessions	Nancy Naylor

It is always the Student Council's desire and goal to promote co-operation and maintain order in the school.

Seated—M. Peterson, N. Naylor, P. Hyde, J. Whitford, Mr. Cherry, Mr. McKay, L. Scott.
Standing—D. Rood, D. Peters, N. Beaty, M. Hendler, B. Wight, F. Olson, R. Olson, J. Mattison, J. Olsen, D. Newark, J. Bailey, T. McCann, L. Erikzon, D. Truax, D. Peterson

Centralian Staffs

"Impartially their talents seen, just education forms the man."

EARLY in the year, the Centralian staffs of Celoron and Lakewood met to decide the theme for the year book. Both staffs have worked diligently to edit a book that will be of interest to everyone.

Those appointed on the staff are:

May Day — 1949

THIS year, dark skies and chill winds failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the spectators and participants and it is decided to hold the festivities in the auditorium. Parents and friends fill the seats long before the appointed hour, waiting in happy anticipation for the ceremony to begin. In the corridor outside, the Seniors excitedly learn the identity of the May Queen, King Winter and their attendants.

The proud and lazy King Winter, Richard Van Every ascends the throne, followed by David Mack, the Master of Ceremonies. The Senior couples are next, passing under the arches and to the stage, forming a court about the throne. Following them come the class presidents, standing in readiness to present their floral offerings to the Queen.

The Maid of Honor, Phyllis Truax, dressed in white and carrying her nosegay, walks sedately under the floral arches, and is seated by the Master of Ceremonies. There is a short pause and then the lovely Queen of the May, JoLeta Hitchiner, in a white gown, walks slowly beneath the arches. She is met at the foot of the stage by King Winter, who escorts her to the throne.

Last come the Queen's court, also arrayed in colorful spring formals; Nancy Nord, Beverly Martindale, Jacky Hancq and Sue Crandall. King Winter seats each of them and the festivities are carried on.

18. James Saulsgiver leaves his post at A & P to Bob Loomis so he won't have to peddle papers all his life.
19. Joan Miller leaves her ability to keep busy to Carol Parker who already manages to keep occupied most of the time.
20. Doris Jensen leaves her natural curly hair and pretty smile to Dorothy Hultin, an already attractive Junior.
21. Phyllis Johnson bestows upon Elizabeth Harrison her enthusiasm for her chosen career.
22. Donna Barkman wills her sweetness and calmness to Marianna Mosher who is rather excitable.
23. To Sue Bailey, who is well on her way to rising in this world, Janet Whitford leaves her secret of remaining small throughout the years.
24. Georgia Siggins bequeaths her chances of a secretary to Betty Bloomstrand.
25. To Elaine Wilson, Virginia Robinson leaves her spontaneous ability to blush. You'd be wise not to accept it, Elaine.
26. Betty Newark bestows her capability for making the right decisions upon Beverly See, who will soon be making some of her own.
27. Lastly to the Junior Class as a whole, we Seniors sadly relinquish our comfortable seats in the Senior homeroom, and we also wish you Juniors as happy a Senior year as we have had.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and fixed our seal this twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifty.

Lakewood Class Will

Robert Colleen would like to give all his empty bottles (coke?) which number in the thousands, to Jimmy Skinner in hopes he won't add very many to his already huge collection.

Shirley Hitchcock wills her engagement ring to Doris Lawson, who should get one soon.

Jerry Mattison leaves his skill at playing cards to Neil Magnuson, who doesn't seem to win, even if someone gives him the right cards.

Harold Carlson wills his good times with women to George Braley, who tries so hard, and by the look of things, is climbing up the ladder, and is nearing the top.

Robert Daily wills his high marks in Math to Richard Forrester, who just can't get out of Plane Geometry class.

Marilyn Howell wills her brilliancy to Nancy Naylor, who has already reached the limelight.

Second row: A. Barland, J. Whitford, J. Easton, D. Barkman, J. Arnold.
Third row: F. Olson, Mrs. Watson, G. Starkweather.

Thespian — Celoron

THESPIAN Troupe 866 of the Celoron Branch of Southwestern Central School recently tapped the following new members: Janet Whitford, Gerald Starkweather, Florence Olson, Alice Barland, Dick Zahn, Joan Easton, and Earl McMaster. Two members of this year's Troupe are Donna Barkman and Jim Arnold.

The Thespian Troupe of Celoron is a member of The National Thespian Society and is sponsored by Mrs. Gladys A. Watson. Most of the present members are Seniors. Joan Easton is the only Junior who will be left to carry on next year. The Troupe is purely an honorary society, as there are too few members to form an active troupe.

The Thespian members are also members of the Masqueraders who staged the play, "Cuckoos On the Hearth." By appearing in plays and working on various committees the students receive points. When they have sufficient points, they may be tapped for membership in the society.

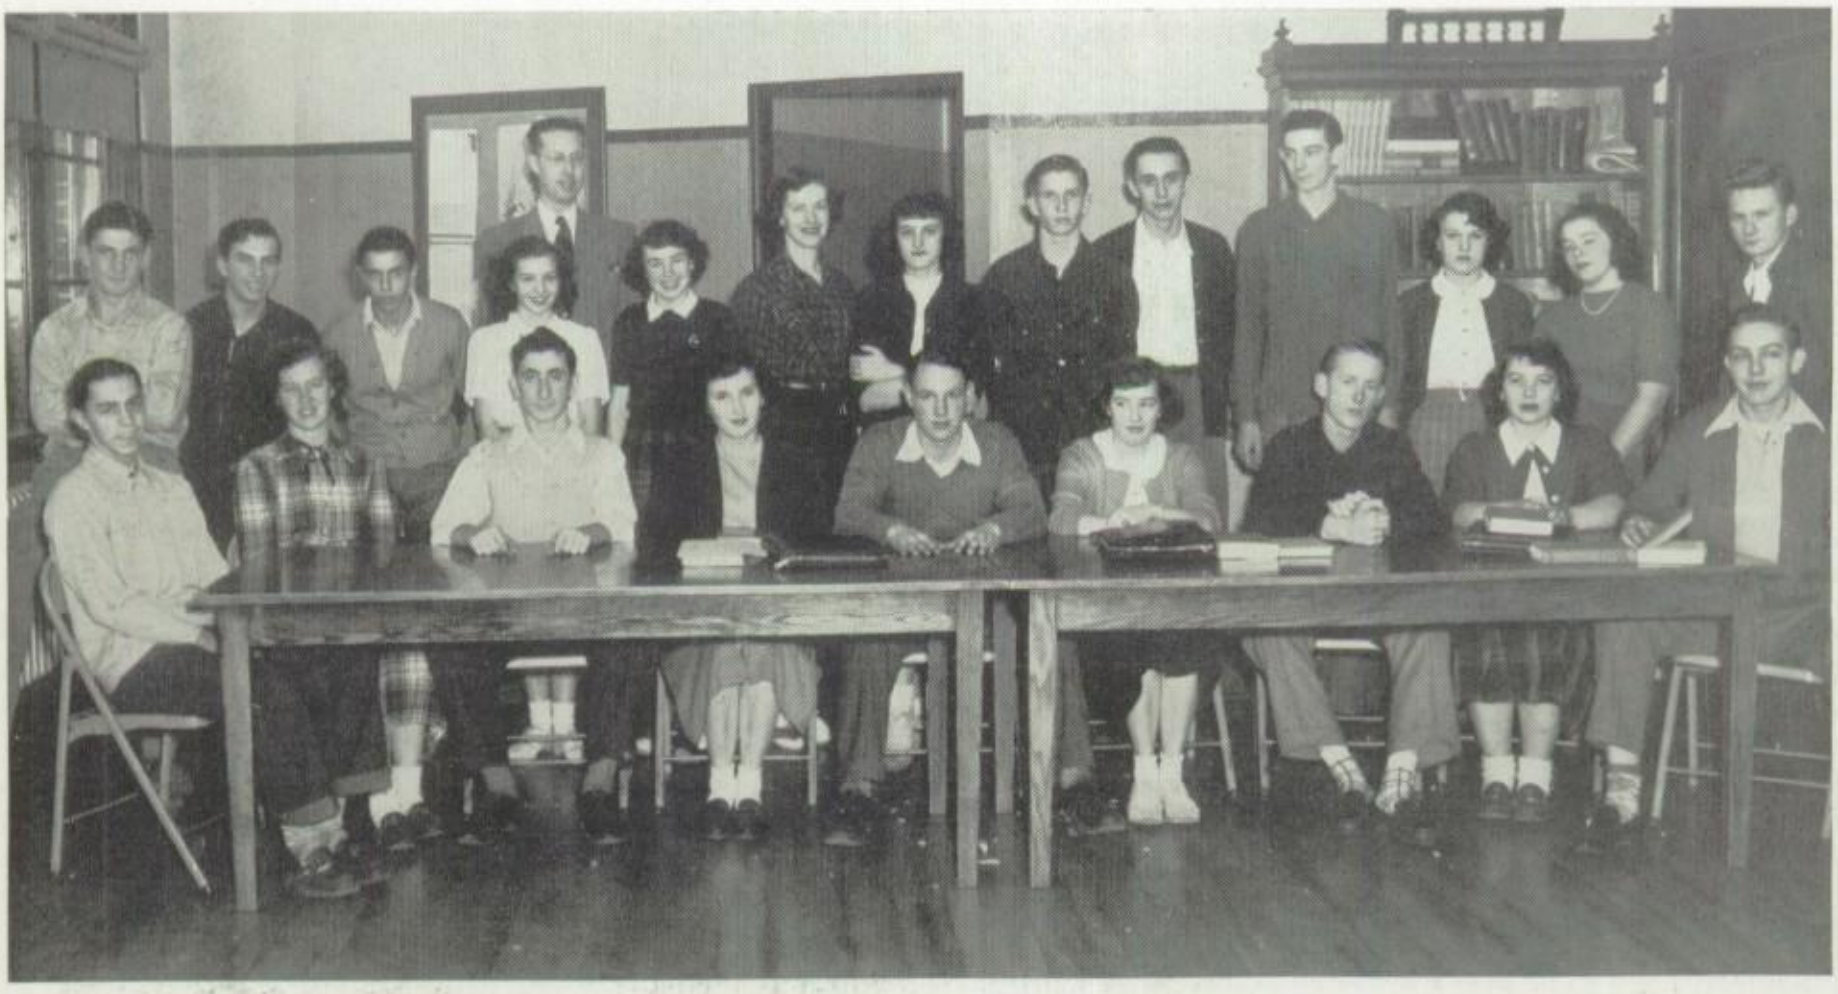
Journalism Club

THIS year the English IV classes, under the direction of Mr. Cherry, formed a Journalism Club. The officers are:

President	Ronald Donner
Vice President	Linnea Haglund
Secretary	Arta Swearingen
Treasurer	Roy Nedreberg

The club was established to help the students who are interested in Journalism and also to manage the school paper, the "News Popper."

The staff carried on many projects throughout the year to fit the paper to the interests of the students. A contest to name the paper was carried on, also a poll to select the teachers who possess various traits.



First row—R. Donner, L. Hagglund, S. Todaro, L. Scott, R. Dailey, A. Swearingen, C. Mullard, D. Nelson, R. Colleen.

Second row—B. Peterson, H. Shearman, M. Robbins, G. Shearman, Mr. Cherry, M. Wescott, A. Bergman, E. Pollaro, J. Carlson, D. Martindale, D. Offhaus, I. Green, E. Nelson, H. Carlson.

Crystal Staff

WITH the beginning of another school year, members of the Crystal Staff renewed with vigor their aim to edit a real and informative paper. With this idea in mind they set out to discover all possible means to their success.

After due consideration it was decided to include grade school news as well as high school news.

The officers include:

Editor ..... Joan Miller
Assistant Editor ..... Virginia Robinson
Boys' Sports ..... Paul Logan
Class News ..... Janet Whitford
Club News ..... Diane Peters
Gossip ..... Yvonne Veitz, Sonya Seager
Grade Editor ..... Sue Bailey
Art ..... Betty Newark
Typing ..... Georgia Siggins, Betty Newark, Dolores Newark
Mimeographing ..... Joan Miller
Subscriptions ..... Sonya Seager, Joan Miller
Advertising ..... Sue Bailey
Features ..... Carl Parker
Reporters—Jones Pratt, Charlene Johnson, Joan Webb, Joan Easton, Donna Barkman

Much emphasis was placed on making attractive headlines, advertising, feature articles, and editorials. One of the factors which aided in the publishing of a good newspaper was the exchange department which, each year, enables the staff to submit the paper to the Empire School Paper for grading.

First row: Mrs. Goodheart, C. Parker, B. Newark, D. Newark, S. Seager, J. Whitford, J. Easton, J. Webb, S. Bailey..
Second row: J. Miller, V. Robinson, C. Johnson, D. Peters.

First row—E. McMaster, J. Agnew, D. Jensen, D. Newark, W. Wassman, T. McCann, D. Peterson, R. Patton.
Second row: J. Miller, B. Crocker, R. Zahn, G. Starkweather, R. Godding, A. Barland, F. Olson, M. Scott, P. Johnson, B. Newark, D. Barkman, J. Whitford, C. Johnson, S. Seager, J. Webb, Mrs. Watson, J. Easton, S. Bailey, M. Widlund, D. Myers.
Third row—C. Parker, D. See, B. Bloomstrand.

Masqueraders

THE members of the Masqueraders have had a very successful year. At the first meeting in September the election of officers was held. The results told us that our president was John Miller; vice president, Judith Agnew; secretary, Janet Whitford; and treasurer, Earl McMaster.

Among the events of the year was the presentation of the three-act comedy-mystery, "Cuckoos on the Hearth," which was presented March 30 and 31. "Hi Neighbor," a two-act play about South America, was given in assembly March 17. The performance was repeated at the Play Festival at Fredonia in April.

The results of these plays made three students eligible for the National Thespians, troupe 860. They are Alice Barland, Joan Easton, and Earl McMaster. Previous members are Florence Olson, Janet Whitford, Dick Zahn, Gerald Starkweather and Donna Barkman.

Teen Age Talent Club

"Remember that you are but an actor, acting whatever part the master has ordained." Epictetus

President ..... Dennis Anderson
Vice President ..... Joan Paquin
Secretary ..... Ruth Berglund
Treasurer ..... Raemon Williams

The Teen-Age Talent Club's main objective is to train better actors and actresses for our future SWCS plays. We have been learning acting positions and movements, the art of applying make-up, studying facial expressions and reading about latest Broadway plays and other great hits.

We have studied much about Greek theaters. They were very interesting and quite different from ours. We have presented many short skits before the room.

We also gave two one-act plays in assembly, "Nobody Sleeps" and "It Always Works." We sponsored a "Farmers' Formal Dance" on March 8, for which the "Lone Star Rangers" furnished the music. It proved very successful.

We hope to keep up the good work we have been doing to improve our acting.

"The Campbells Are Coming"

ON MARCH 10th, the Junior Class presented an hilarious comedy, "The Campbells Are Coming," under the direction of Mr. James D. Cherry.

This amusing play took place in the Brannigan summer cabin in the Ozarks. When the Brannigan family found out that the eldest grandchild, Kaye, had thrown over her boyfriend, Jeff, for Kingston Campbell, they took some drastic action. They decided to pose as hillbillies to get rid of Kingston and his mother. The ensuing action and the results that followed made a play that will be remembered for a long time to come.

The cast was as follows:

Ma Brannigan	Nancy Naylor
Catalpa Tapp	Isabelle Green
Betty Brannigan	Patricia Carlson
Dick Brannigan	Jack Carlson
Bildad Tapp	Lynn Reynolds
Cyrus Scudder	George Braley
Jeffrey Scudder	Tom Naughton
Kaye Brannigan	Marilyn Wescott
Kingston Campbell	Richard Forrester
Augusta Campbell	Allene Bergman

Chonita

OUR operetta this year was a very successful one under the direction of Miss Lillian Malmberg. The cast, a very able one, included:

Murdo, Chonita's father and tribe leader	Ronny Merwin
Daya, Chonita's old nurse	Shirley Hitchcock
Chonita, Gypsy princess	Emily Pollaro
Stephen, Montreal of the tribe	Roger Lindquist
Konrad, Chonita's cousin	John Hendrickson
The Baron, Konrad's father	Horace Braley
The Baroness, Konrad's mother	Laura Scott

Accompanist
Pianist—Ann Burstrom
Cellist—Mrs. Adelia Johnson
Violinist—Nels Hedin

The cast was supported by a group of six gypsy dancers, a group of minuet dancers, and the chorus who did a good job. —A. E. B., '51

Junior Dramatic Club

"To play a part upon the stage is art.
To act a part in life is to deceive."

IN SEPTEMBER at an organization meeting of the Junior Dramatic Club, we elected the following officers:

President ..... Madelyn Stranigan
Secretary ..... Marjorie Starkweather
Treasurer ..... Cynthia McKay

We have had a very busy and successful year. In February we gave two short "Wildcat Willie" plays for P.T.A. and also for an assembly program. Some of the boys made covers for a scrapbook which we filled with newspaper clippings and pictures of plays produced through the years. At Easter time we made baskets which we filled with eggs, fruit, goodies, and games for children in the children's wards at both hospitals.

Our main money making project was selling Christmas cards, everyday cards, and stationery. From the proceeds we purchased a new record player for our club.

Our very pleasant year we plan to end with a picnic. —C. M.

Standing—J. Parker, M. Starkweather, C. McKay, M. Stranigan.

Senior Dance Club

"Come and trip it as ye go,
On the light fantastic toe."

EVERY Wednesday afternoon under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Rhodes and Miss Adelee Tack, we dance to the rhythm of recorded music.

In the fall officers were elected as follows:

President	Rolland Godding
Vice President	Florence Olson
Secretary	Joan Johnson
Treasurer	Frances Freay

To make it easier for the new members, dance instructors were appointed to teach them. The instructors helped the beginners waltz, two-step, polka, and jitterbug. When they learned how to dance, everyone enjoyed the club more.

The only requirements for membership are to be a high school student and be interested in dancing. Those who do not participate in the dancing are disqualified.

The 1949-1950 year was a very successful one. We wish the old and new members next year a happy time like the one we enjoyed.

Junior Dance Club

"Athens, the eye of Greece, mother of arts and eloquence."

THE officers of the Junior Dance Club are Joan Parker, president; Sally Anderson, vice president; Shirley Edgren, secretary; and Elaine Anderson, treasurer.

The club meets weekly. Usually we dance to recorded music; however, Mr. Harold Parker assisted us by calling square dances, and he also taught us many new dances. Joann Parker, for one meeting, secured an orchestra consisting of Carol Parker, violinist; Jack Hunt, guitarist; and Joann Parker, pianist. We had as guests at this meeting the members of the Senior Dance Club and the Seventh Grade.

Several dances were sponsored after school and "coke" was sold. Girls were in charge of tickets and boys in charge of "coke". There were program chairmen and all of them planned splendid programs. We enjoyed a Valentine program under the direction of Betty Bernhard and Patsy Hyde.

The Dance Club sponsored Mrs. King of Randolph, an internationally known marimba player, on March 24. Mrs. King played a command performance before the king and queen of England. She toured Europe, playing her marimba.

We have enjoyed this year and hope the boys and girls next year will find the club enjoyable.

Camera Club

THE Camera Club was formed for the purpose of creating interest in a worthwhile hobby and providing basic training in photography. These officers were elected:

President	Dale Newark
Vice President	Roger Whitford
Secretary-Treasurer	Joan Paquin
Committee Chairman	Philip Bloomquist

The club which boasts of a large membership includes junior and senior high school students.

Different types of cameras have been studied, good and bad uses of the camera have been presented, abilities and limitations of both simple and complex lenses have been discussed. Several students have their own dark rooms and some enlarge their favorite snaps. All have learned to take better pictures, develop negatives and print.

Members are allowed to enter contests which are sponsored by different companies.

The club feels that this has been a worthwhile activity and wish to thank Mr. Morris for his suggestions and advice.

Dance Club

THIS year Miss Jerman organized a dance club and taught the many members the fundamentals of dancing. It was the first Dance Club ever organized at Lakewood and is regarded as a big success. During the year we elected Harold Carlson as president and Sonya Simpson as treasurer. We paid dues and bought records for round and square dancing.

Everybody enjoyed themselves and also improved their dancing ability.

As a reward for the club's efforts a public dance was sponsored. Many happy young people came to the attractively decorated gym for the occasion.

The King and Queen of the evening were chosen and Richard Wigley and Mary Ann Hendler were given this honor. —H. C., '51

Track 1949

THIS oldest of all sports is slowly losing favor with the schoolboy athletes. It means self training and self discipline. The ancient Greeks lived to compete in the Olympic Games but any track coach with two competitors in each event feels pretty good. Mr. Rushin wasn't that lucky.

We had three track meets in '49. The first was a triangular meet at Falconer with Falconer, Smithport and Southwestern competing. We came up with the middle place. —R. C.

Baseball 1949

AFTER winning the first game against a favored Fredonia team, the team went into a slump. After losing to Jamestown, Westfield and Falconer we came out of it to beat Fredonia again. We then rallied to beat Westfield but lost to Jamestown in a close game that was determined by a couple of close plays at second base. We recovered again to beat Falconer in a game on their field.

With 2 games left on account of a postponement, both against Silver Creek, we needed both games to win the class A title. Coach Milton Harp's athletes then really came to life. In the first game, a close one, we beat Silver Creek 2-0 on our field. The next day we traveled to Silver Creek and won again 13-5. The class A title for Chautauqua County then belonged to Southwestern. But we had bigger ideas, first the bi-county and then the Section VI title. For the bi-county we played Gowanda. This game was a pitchers' duel until the fifth inning when Gowanda fell apart and we scored 11 runs. We finally won the game 12-2. We then had the bi-county title. The next and last hurdle was Hamburg for the Section VI title. This game was played in Buffalo's Offerman Stadium. Highlighted by a triple play we again came out on top. 7-2.

Considering this season very successful we are looking forward to the 1950 campaign to repeat our performance. —H. C.

* Non league games.

The first game of the season, played at Silver Creek in the rain, resulted in a 6-6 deadlock.

On September 29, the Southwestern Trojans defeated the Warren J. V.s 32-0.

Again the following week, Southwestern proved superior to Westfield, trimming them 27-0. Tom Naughton made two touchdowns and Jack Wigley, one.

Freshman Football

Then on October 14, Southwestern and Falconer, traditional rivals clashed on the Falconer field. The first quarter was scoreless but in the second quarter, Paul Logan smashed over for a touchdown. The third quarter kickoff was carried the length of the field by Jack Wigley for the second touchdown. After this, Falconer rallied and made two touchdowns and an extra point to tie the game up. When this hotly contested battle ended, the score stood at 13-13.

The next game, this time played at Packard Field with Jamestown's J. V.s was a hardhitting thriller marked by brilliant backfield running and blocking.

The next Trojan victory was over Salamanca, 20-0. This game was played with a light coating of snow on the ground.

The last game of the season, played at Gowanda, proved to be a thriller and a heartbreaker. Ronnie Carlson went over the line for a touchdown, but this was called back and a penalty was imposed for backfield in motion. Neither team was able to score and the game ended in a scoreless tie.

Southwestern had four All-Star players. Those chosen were Neil Magnuson, guard; Bert Peterson, tackle; Ronald Carlson, end; and Paul Logan, back.

Dick Cady, guard and Jim Skinner, center were on the second All-Star team.

Varsity Basketball

SOUTHWESTERN'S Red and Blue Trojans went to the basketball wars again this year and returned with three victories in fourteen outings. The victories came at the hands of Silver Creek and Westfield, two victories being held over Silver Creek.

The best game of the season was played at Fredonia when the Trojans were edged in an overtime 46-36. Another very exciting game was played at Silver Creek where the Red and Blue-clad Trojans squeaked by the Black Knights of Silver Creek 42-40. Later, however, they proved this was no fluke when they took a decisive 53-40 decision.

Junior Varsity Basketball

THE Southwestern JV's completed a highly successful season, winning 12 of 14 games, losing only to Dunkirk and Gowanda. They came back later in the season to defeat both these teams decisively. Coach Shevalier can look to the future with an optimistic viewpoint after watching this team. This promising team has played together for two years now and results will soon be forthcoming out of the Southwestern basketball program.

Volleyball

THE Southwestern Central volleyball team walked away with the Chautauqua County Class A championship for the third consecutive year. The annual tournament was played at Jamestown High School. The Trojans were unable to capture further honors because the Section VI finals were cancelled on account of the late basketball season.

Southwestern will have a number of veterans returning next season and hopes to repeat this year's performance and also grab the Section VI title. Among those returning next season will be J. Wigley, D. McCann, J. McMaster, D. Patton, D. Allen, J. Carlson, J. Hunt, W. Carlson, R. Williams, J. Clark, and D. Lepley. These veterans will undoubtedly be able to carry on the precedent set by the last three Southwestern teams.

Cheerleaders

THE school year 1949-1950, produced a spirited, new squad of cheerleaders consisting of Pat Carlson, Diane Christy, Donna Swearingen, Diane Carlson, Virginia Robinson, and Joyce Spence, who were ably guided by one veteran, Sonya Seager, and proficiently supervised and directed by Miss Jerman.

The girls possessed a remarkable team spirit and exhibited co-ordination and precision which could be accredited to their weekly practice together and their practice alone throughout the week at the separate branches.

The Junior Varsity team had a promising and smart-looking squad of cheerleaders as follows: Joan Johnson, Hazel Swartz, Bonnie McCann, Joyce Crandall, and Janet Berg. Practice once a week was held with their adviser, Miss Tack.

Both squads of cheerleaders were outfitted in smart new uniforms. The varsity uniforms were blue and very gaily decorated in red. The Junior Varsity cheerleaders wore red skirts and white blouses.

The "S" Club

THE "S" Club is Southwestern Central's letter club. It is made up of boys from Celoron and Lakewood who have earned a letter in either baseball, basketball, football or track.

Many of the members hold letters in more than one sport.

This last year we held an election to choose the officers and the results were as follows:

President	Bert Peterson
Vice President	Billy Wassman
Treasurer	Jack Wiley
Secretary	Tom Naughton

We sold pencils, with the basketball schedule on them, so that we might buy film to take pictures of our games. The effort did not meet with any great success as the students did not buy all of the pencils.

We are planning to sell tags to put on license plates next year. They will have a picture of a Trojan and the name of the school on them. They will be in the school colors, red and blue.

You all want good teams so next year let's all go to the games and support the team!

Lakewood Class Will

John Hedberg leaves his mechanical ability to John Magnuson, who is always working on his Plymouth, with the hope that some time he will be rewarded by its actually running.

Roy Nedreberg wills his way with the girls in Pennsylvania to Lowell White, who also has some interest in the same state.

Anne Kudzy wills her appreciation of athletes from Celoron to Pat Carlson, who appreciates them from Lakewood.

Kenneth Olson gives his success in being able to catch the bus to come to school every morning (even though he has to walk a half mile) to Bill Christy, who lives right here in town, but is late almost every morning.

Donna Nelson wills her bashful ways to Donna Hern, who is far from bashful.

Arta Swearingen wills her quiet ways with a boy to Sandy Wilson, who flirts with many.

Linnea Hagglund wills her good times at the "Open-Air" to Isabelle Green and Marian Decker, who enjoy waiting for letters from far away places.

Emily Pollaro wills her sweet voice to Allene Bergman, who has trouble staying on the right notes.

Norman Carlson wills his entire fishing tackle to the Junior class so they may all play "Hookey" on May Day.
